APSO searching for Baton Rouge man wanted for burglary

According to Ascension Parish Sheriff's Office Major Kevin Hanna and investigation began in mid-November after it was discovered that a single storage unit had been burglarized at a multi-storage unit facility located at on Airline Highway.

During the course of the investigation detectives learned there was no forced entry into the single storage unit. The victim/ renter listed approximately $25,000 worth of tools and miscellaneous items were stolen from the unit. Detectives located some of the stolen property in various Baton Rouge pawn shops and their records showed that the items were pawned by 50-year-old Ryan Lance Redinger.

As the investigation continued it was revealed to detectives the unit was entered via an access code 13 separate times without the renter's permission. Detectives also found out that Redinger was employed by the renter during the time frame of the storage unit burglaries and had the access code, added Major Hanna.

In the latter part of December detectives obtained arrest warrants on Ryan Lance Redinger for 13 counts of simple burglary and theft. After multiple attempts to locate Redinger, detectives found that his last known address was at 9064 Mammoth Avenue, Baton Rouge, but information received by detectives stated that he may have left town.

He was last seen driving a red 2001 Ford single cab pickup truck, possibly a Ranger, with a Louisiana license plate Y079965.
