Two juveniles arrested; one suspect at large in stolen vehicle in Donaldsonville

According to Lt. Col. Bobby Webre, on Monday night, deputies received information that a 2014 Toyota Camry, stolen from Assumption Parish, was traveling into Donaldsonville. Deputies spotted the stolen vehicle entering the city limits of Donaldsonville and attempted to stop the vehicle. The driver fled from deputies in the vehicle and crashed into a ditch on Thibaut Drive. No one was injured.

Three occupants of the vehicle fled on foot and two juveniles were apprehended. The two 16-year-old juvenile males were both charged with possession of stolen things, criminal trespass, aggravated flight from an officer, resisting an officer, curfew violation, reckless operation, stop signs and signals, and driver must be licensed.

They were both booked into the Assumption Youth Detention Center.

One unidentified suspect remains at large.
