Deputies searching for woman who pepper sprayed store employee

Deputies are searching for a shoplifter who pepper-sprayed a Wal-Mart employee after stealing several bottles of alcohol from the Prairieville Wal-Mart on Sunday, May 15.

An African-American woman, wearing a yellow shirt, dark colored jacket, and dark jeans, walked into this wal-mart and stole several bottles of alcohol valued at approximately $220. The employee attempted to stop the woman outside of the store and she produced a can of pepper spray and sprayed the employee in the face. The female then fled the scene in a black Mercury Milan, with a temporary license plate, occupied by two additional female subjects.
