APSO seeking whereabouts of Donaldsonville man; second suspect arrested

Ascension Parish Sheriff's Office is actively searching for 20-year-old Oliver Solomon of Donaldsonville who is wanted for second-degree battery and disturbing the peace.

A second suspect, identified as Cordell Forcell, turned himself into authorities on Saturday night after deputies responded to a house party at a residence in Donaldsonville where a fight occurred. Both Forcell and Solomon approached a male victim across the street from the party and punched him in the face. The victim received fractures to the face and was transported to a nearby hospital and treated for his injuries.

Cordell Forcell, 20, of 107 Oakridge Ave. Donaldsonville, was arrested on Saturday, May 28 and charged with second-degree battery and disturbing the peace.

Solomon is approximately six feet tall, weighing 160 pounds with black hair and brown eyes.

Anyone with the whereabouts of Oliver Solomon is urged to contact the Ascension Parish Sheriff's Office at 235-621-4636 or by texting 847411 to an anonymous tip line from any cellular device, or contact Crime Stoppers at 225-344-STOP (7867), text CS225 plus your message to CRIMES (274637) or submit an anonymous tip at www.crimestoppersbr.com. You will remain completely anonymous and could be eligible for a cash reward.
