Crime stoppers tip leads to arrest of Donaldsonville man

29-year-old Markquincy Chatman was arrested on Thursday, December 29, after deputies received a crime stoppers tip that Chatman was at a residence in Garland, Texas, according to Chief Deputy Bobby Webre.

On Tuesday, December 13, Ascension Parish Sheriff's deputies responded to a domestic disturbance at a residence in D'Ville Village apartments in Donaldsonville. Upon deputies' arrival, a female acquaintance of Chatman advised deputies that he struck her in the face after an argument ensued and the female suffered a broken tooth and a busted lip, added Chief Webre.

As the investigation continued, it was learned that Chatman has committed battery on the female acquaintance before.

Chatman has been arrested ten times with charges stemming from felony domestic abuse battery, possession of cocaine, and carnal knowledge of a juvenile.

Chatman is currently in the Dallas County Texas jail awaiting extradition. He will be charged with felony second-degree battery.
