APSO deputies arrest wanted man in backyard shed in Donaldsonville

Ascension Parish Sheriff's deputies arrested 26-year-old Terrance Richard on Thursday, January 5 after he robbed the Pak-A-Pak convenient store located on Highway 1 South in Donaldsonville on December 28, 2016.

According to Lt. Col. Ward Webb, deputies have been searching for Richard since the robbery. Deputies received an anonymous tip on the whereabouts of Richard on Thursday morning and located him walking on Palm Street in Donaldsonville. Once deputies attempted to stop him, he fled on foot leading them to a shed in the backyard of an unknown residence on Maginnis Street where he was arrested without incident. Deputies also retrieved a handgun that was located on Richard, added Lt. Col. Webb.

Terrance Richard, 26, of 210 Houmas Street, Donaldsonville, was arrested and charged with armed robbery, attempted armed robbery, two counts aggravated assault with a firearm, two counts possession of a firearm by convicted felon, resisting an officer, and false imprisonment.

He was booked into the Ascension Parish Jail where no bond has been set yet.
