APSO seeking suspect in Sunday morning pharmacy burglary

The Ascension Parish Sheriff's Office is seeking the public's assistance in locating 36-year-old Aaron Beyl who burglarized Galvez Pharmacy, located on Highway 42 in Prairieville, on Sunday, June 18, according to Chief Deputy Bobby Webre.

Detectives responded to the pharmacy shortly after 4 a.m. Sunday morning and obtained surveillance video from the area. Detectives observed a white male wearing a long blonde wig dressed in a green hooded sweatshirt, pink gloves, blue jeans, and black shoes exit a silver Toyota Camry and run to the door of the pharmacy with a red hammer and strike the glass of the pharmacy and enter the store stealing an undisclosed amount of prescription medications.

As the investigation continued, detectives were able to identify the suspect as 36-year-old Aaron Beyl after detectives located the vehicle he was driving at a residence in Baton Rouge. Beyl was not at the residence but detectives located several wigs, a red hammer, and a mask inside of his vehicle.

Beyl has a lengthy criminal history that includes simple burglary of a pharmacy in 2006 and 2012 and obtaining prescription by fraud in 2010.
