APSO arrests two for incident involving school bus

Ascension Parish Sheriff's Deputies responded to Rouses Supermarket on Highway 42 in reference to a disturbance that took place on Little Prairie Road involving an Ascension Parish School bus., according to Lt. Col. Ward Webb.

The bus driver advised deputies that while on the school bus route, the bus was stopped by two males, in which one was open carrying a handgun on his waist. The males were later identified as Clifton Hamby and Kerry LeSaicherre. Deputies spoke with both males who advised they observed the bus traveling at a high rate of speed with kids on the bus.

The bus driver advised she was traveling the posted speed limit on the road way.

Hamby, 58, of 18289 Little Prairie Road, Prairieville and LeSaicherre, 60, of 18305 Little Prairie Road, Prairieville were both arrested and charged with disturbing the peace and simple obstruction of a highway.

Both were booked into the Ascension Parish Jail and released on bond.
