APSO arrests five on multiple drug charges

Ascension Parish Sheriff's Narcotics Division arrested five subjects on multiple drug charges on Wednesday, September 26.

According to Chief Deputy Bobby Webre, detectives received information that a Kevin Lazo was in possession of a large quantity of drugs. Detectives followed Lazo to a parking lot where he met with additional subjects in a vehicle. Detectives approached Lazo's vehicle and located more than a pound of marijuana.

Detectives then located a quantity of Methamphetamine and Heroin, along with a stolen firearm in the other vehicle occupied by Irvin Green, Dominique Poulos, and Jon Miller.

All four subjects were placed under arrest. While detectives continued their search, Green managed to escape handcuffs and attempted to flee the scene on foot but was apprehended immediately.

As the investigation continued, detectives performed a search warrant on Lazo's residence where an additional subject, later identified as Raelynn Guitreau, and two juveniles, were present in the home. Detectives located an additional amount of marijuana, over 1,000 Xanax pills, approximately 180 Adderall pills, an additional handgun that was reported stolen, and drug paraphernalia.
