APSO arrests Denham Springs man on voyeurism charge

According to Sheriff Bobby Webre, deputies, along with the assistance of Livingston Parish Sheriff's Office, arrested 33-year-old Randall Tobias at his residence in Denham Springs on second-offense video voyeurism.

Deputies responded to the Prairieville Wal-Mart on May 16 in reference to a male who had taken several inappropriate photographs from under and beneath the skirts of several victims during the time frame of 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. that day.

There may be at least two other female victims who are unaware of this incident, however, if you visited the Prairieville Wal-Mart during this day and time frame, please contact 225-621-8693.

Tobias, of Joe May Road, Denham Springs, was arrested and charged with second offense video voyeurism and booked into the Ascension Parish Jail. He was released on a $20,000 bond.
